

Together

But who are we separated from?
Who is the person on the other side of the wall?
When we think of Prisons we can easily envisage a wall and hostility towards those inside.
Those who have caused harm or have done wrong.
Yet what invisible walls of hostility have we built up in our Society? who do we view as the "other":
Prisoners, Prisoners Families, Communities,
Former Prisoners, Addicts... ?

Prisoners Week provides the opportunity to open up a wider discussion on how we view all of those people who are touched by the Criminal Justice System. How can Society, Churches and Individuals break down hostility toward: Prisoners, their Families, Former Prisoners?

Prisoners Week Prayer

Lord, you offer freedom to all people.
We pray for those who are held in prison.
Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.

Support with your love:
prisoners, their families and friends,
prison staff, chaplains
and all who care.

Heal those who have been wounded by the activities of others, especially the victims of crime.

Help us to forgive one another, to act justly, to love mercy, and walk humbly together with Christ in his strength and in his Spirit, now and every day.

Amen.
